

ABERDEEN'S FAIRTRADE FORTNIGHT

Visit the Fairtrade Foundation's Photo Exhibition in the Central Library from Thursday 19th till Tuesday 24th February and see just how Fairtrade changes lives

Come along to the Montgomery Centre, 79 Queen St, Aberdeen on Wednesday, 25th February to Aberdeen Fairtrade's evening event running from 6.30-8.00pm .

Pamela L'Intelligent, a Fairtrade producer from Mauritius, Andy Ashcroft from Kool Schools and Deirdre Muldowney from the Scottish Fair Trade Forum will be there to share information about Fairtrade cotton

We will also introduce our new FT flagship employer, NorthLink Ferries

There will be a Fairtrade stall and refreshments and the extended Photo Exhibition will be on display (Entrance is via door on Shoe Lane, adjacent to Lemon Tree)

If you're partial to Fairtrade home bakes, don't miss the Fairtrade Coffee morning on Thursday 5th March at the Cults Kirk Centre, from 10 till 12 noon

Aberdeen's St Mary's Cathedral Halls is the venue for the Co-operative's 2015 Wine Sampling event, at 7.00pm on Friday 6th March. This promises to be a really interesting evening and booking is essential. If you would like to attend, book online at

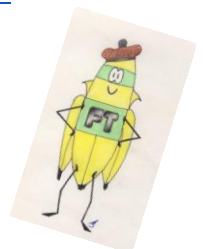

<http://bit.ly/ftwinetasting>

Aberdeen University will also host a packed programme of Fairtrade events throughout the fortnight in various venues. For full details see:-

<http://www.abdn.ac.uk/fairtrade/uploads/files/fairtrade-2015.pdf>

Aberdeen Fairtrade

For more information follow us on Facebook <http://www.facebook.com/aberdeenfairtrade>

CHOOSE
PRODUCTS
THAT CHANGE
LIVES

